

In order to full fill our daily production we wander the Bodrum Peninsaula and Gulf of Gökova.

We especially choose small businesses and artisan masters to reach fresh and genuine products.

Our friendly approach and close realtionship with the producers enables us to. gather prime quality ingredients.

That is why we update our menu seasonally and if you can not find your favourite dish from your last visit in the menu please keep our seasonality in mind. We will always be offering you alternatives which will as unforgettable as the last time.

While gathering these products we also are trying to stay loyal to the nature where these ingredients ar gathered.
